The Robert Scott Bell Show: Homeopathic Hits - Jacaranda caroba

Jacaranda Caroba: The STI/STD, Throat, Urinary and Rheumatic Remedy

Introduction:
Today's Homeopathic Hit is Jacaranda Caroba, commonly known as Brazilian Caroba-tree. Boericke notes its reputation in venereal diseases and rheumatism, with important urinary and sexual symptoms, morning sickness, throat irritation, inflamed watery eyes, and rheumatic soreness and stiffness.

Origin of Jacaranda caroba:
Prepared from the Brazilian Caroba-tree, Jacaranda caroba reflects a remedy picture centered on the urinary and sexual organs, rheumatic pains, throat and eye irritation, and morning aggravations with soreness and stiffness. Boericke places special emphasis on gonorrhoeal and syphilitic rheumatic states.

Complementary Remedies

Based on venereal disease states, urethral discharge, phimosis, chancroid, chordee, throat vesicles, morning soreness, and gonorrheal or syphilitic rheumatism

Thuja occidentalis: Boericke comparison for gonorrheal and sycotic states, genital irritation, and chronic urinary-sexual complaints.
Corallium rubrum: Boericke comparison where venereal symptoms, mucous membrane irritation, and genital involvement are prominent.
Jacaranda gualandai: Compare in syphilitic symptoms, especially of the eye and throat, chancroids, atonic ulcers, and dark painless diarrhea.
Medorrhinum: Symptom-based comparison for chronic gonorrheal states and gonorrheal rheumatism.
Mercurius solubilis: Compare where venereal disease states, throat symptoms, discharge, and ulcerative tendencies are present.
Nitric acid: Compare in chancroidal, fissured, or ulcerative genital complaints with sharp pains.
Cannabis sativa: Compare where urethral inflammation, discharge, chordee, and painful erections dominate.
Rhus toxicodendron: Compare in rheumatic stiffness, morning soreness, and joint pains.

---

Cautions:
Genital discharge, chancroid-like sores, painful erections, phimosis, suspected venereal disease, or inflammatory urinary symptoms require evaluation by a qualified health professional. These symptoms may involve contagious infections requiring proper diagnosis and treatment.

Conclusion:
When urinary and sexual symptoms dominate, when the urethra is inflamed with yellow discharge, when throat vesicles, morning soreness, and rheumatic pains appear alongside venereal or arthritic tendencies, Jacaranda caroba reflects Boericke's focused remedy state - a Brazilian Caroba-tree remedy centered on urinary-sexual irritation, venereal complaints, and rheumatic stiffness.
